

The Changing Shape of Local Labour Market Planning

The Metamorphosis has begun.....

Labour Market Planning – Current Model

- Led by local Planning Boards (WPBWWD)
- Planning Board objectives
  - Community partnerships
  - 3 Year Labour market plan & annual updates
- Planning process:
  - Labour market research
  - Input from multiple stakeholders/planning tables
  - Formal/Informal
- Lack of recognition of contributions to planning process

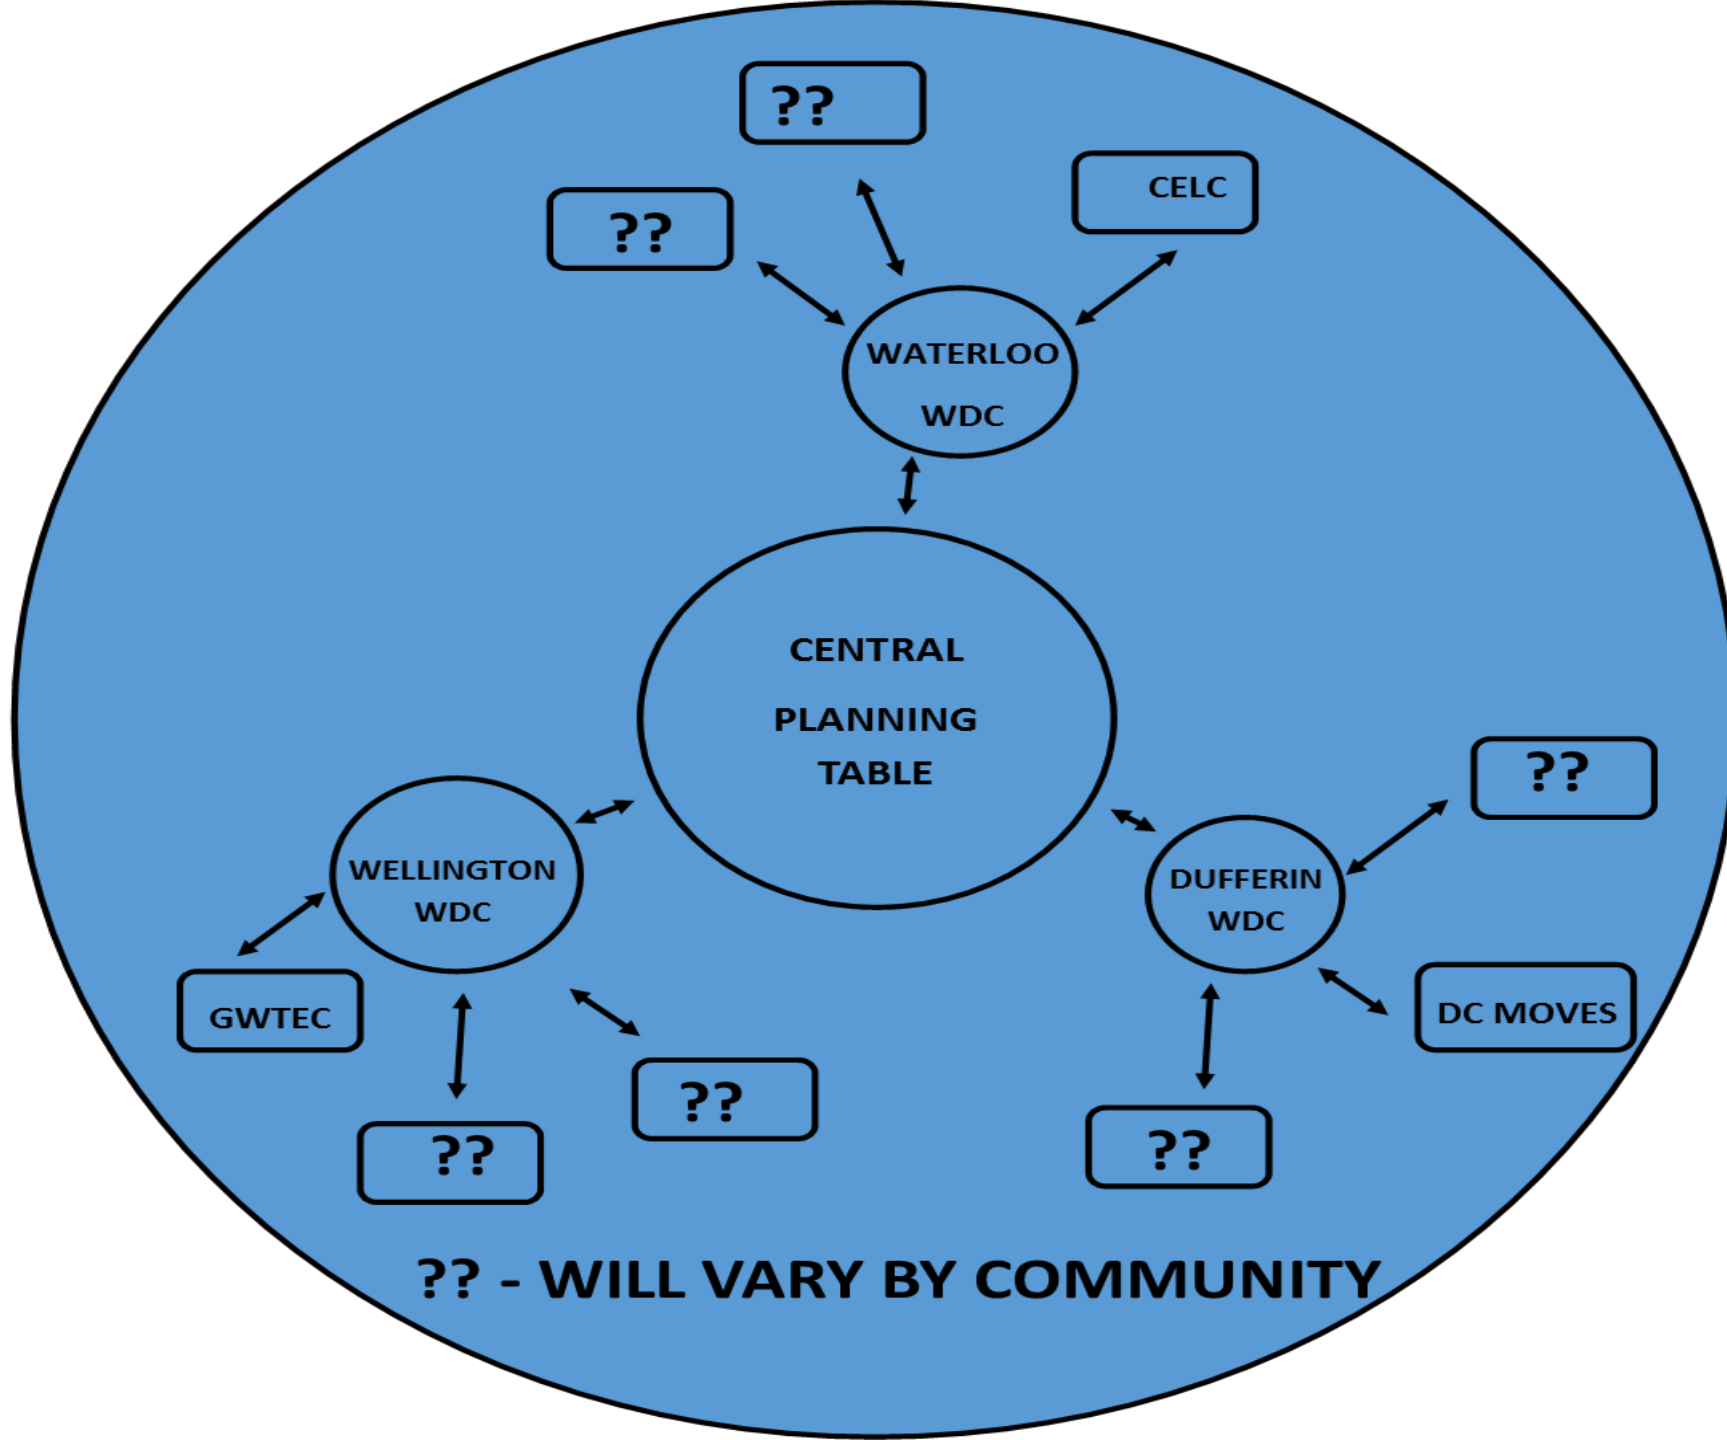

Turquoise circle represents business and education/training

Local Employment Planning Councils (LEPC)

- Launched by Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities
- Part of MTCU's Transformation of Employment & Training Services
- 8 pilot areas being led by local Planning Boards
- LEPC objectives
  - Community partnerships
  - Service coordination
  - Integrated local planning
  - Research & innovation
  - Identification of best practices
  - Analysis and interpretation of labour market information

Proposed Local Planning Tables

- Central Planning Table
- Workforce Development Committees (3 minimum)
- Working Groups (examples from London pilot)
  - Intergovernmental
  - Service planning
  - LMI engagement
  - Employer engagement

Next 6-12 months

- Key stakeholder consultations re potential local model
- Monitor LIPC pilot evaluations
- Move toward formalizing planning process and participants
- Engage local industry and employer associations
